REMEDIES ON DEFAULT

10.01. Scope. Each Owner shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations of the Association as they presently exist or as they may be amended from time to time, and each Owner shall be reasonable for the actions of his or her family members, servants, guests, occupants, invitees or agents.

10.02. Grounds For and Form of Relief. Failure to comply with any of the Covenants of this Declaration, the By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Officers which may be adopted pursuant thereto shall constitute a default and shall entitle the Association to seek relief which may include, without limitation, an action to recover any unpaid assessment, annual, or special, together with interest as provided for in Section 8.01, any sums due for damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of lien or any combination thereof, and which relief may be sought by the Association or, if appropriate and not in conflict with the provisions of this Declaration and By-Laws, by an aggrieved Owner.

10.03 Recovery of Expenses. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by an Owner, the Association, if successful, shall, in addition to the relief provided for in Section 10.02, be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court, but in no event shall the Owner be entitled to such attorneys' fees.

10.04. Waiver. The failure of the Association or of any Owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted herein or the receipt or acceptance by the Association of any part payment of an assessment shall not constitute a waiver of any breach of a Covenant, nor shall same constitute a waiver to enforce such Covenant(s) in the future.

10.05. Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or an Owner or Owners pursuant to any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Declaration and By-Laws shall be deemed to be cumulative and in addition to any and every other remedy given herein or otherwise existing, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be available to any such party at law or in equity.
